

Your Local CentiMark Difference

CentiMark Corporation, located at 10701 Hampshire Avenue in Bloomington, is the hub for a local network of commercial/industrial roofing contractor offices in your community that are supported through the resources of a national company based in Canonsburg, PA. CentiMark's "local yet national" approach gives our customers the best possible service.

All of our crews are local to our community and are trained in roof installation and safety. Our workplace is your roof, and we maintain a clean, safe and drug-free environment. CentiMark's safety program is unmatched in the roofing industry.

Please take the time to look over our literature to get a feel for our entire spectrum of capabilities. The attached brochure, "The CentiMark Difference", contains QR codes that simply require a free barcode reader application on your smart phone to access. By scanning the QR codes, you can get fast and easy access to our informational videos.

We know your time is important. So, on behalf of CentiMark and our great employees here in Bloomington, we thank you for your time and hope we can serve you in some capacity in the near future.
